Measurements:

- Card base 8 1/2" X 5 1/2" score at 4 1/4"
- Designer paper 4" X 5 1/4"
- square center approximately 2"
- square layer 2 1/4"
- 4 strips 1/4" X 5"

Directions:

1. Stamp the center square as desired. I used Lost Lagoon or Petal Pink ink and the Irresistible Blooms stamp set. Adhere to the colored square card stock. Adhere to the designer paper slightly above center.
2. Add the first 1/4" strip on the upper center, making sure it's even with the edge of the largest square layer. Adhere.
3. Adhere the next strip along the center square meeting the first strip evenly. Continue until you have all 4 strips added.
4. Trim off the excess card stock hanging off the designer paper. Adhere the entire piece to your card.

Tips:

- It helps to have the strips the same color as the card base for continuity.
- You can have a single square in the center or a layered square.
- If you'd like to have a different designer paper on alternate corners, make sure it's cut 'square'. Add it after the strips are in place, butting the Designer paper up against them. Trim off any overhanging excess.
